Senior History

The burning of the old junior high began the high school career of the class of '52. As seventh graders, we attended classes in the over-crowded high school during the afternoon half of a double shift.

With the inaugural of the 7-5 school system the class of '52 became the first eighth graders in Corvallis High school history. As official high schoolers we made our presence known by topping the seniors in a hard-fought student body ticket race. An all-time high of 99.3 per cent of class members with tickets was the result of a class-conducted campaign, headed by president, Jerry Hiller.

The freshman year activities included the usual class skate and picnic under the leadership of Don Scott, class president. It was hoped to establish a tradition, as we feted the eighth grade with a party of games, movies, and dancing.

For our sophomore year, we elected a girl, Nancy Krehbiel, to head class affairs, and found ourselves becoming an established part of Corvallis High activities, clubs, and sports.

A busy junior year was consumed in the usual variety of activities; Virginia Ramsay and Joanne Wood headed an organized Junior Sales under the direction of Mr. Stanley Strong, while Mr. William Reedy directed the class play, "Our Miss Brooks", which was termed successful both dramatically and financially. Keynoting the year the entire class's efforts were put forth in the prom, "Showboat", and presented as a gift to the senior class. Howard Bell wielded the gavel during 1949-51, which was an All-School Circus year, and found Princess Marlene Hankins representing the juniors in the Circut Court.

The final climax to five years of high school came when, as seniors, we stuck our thumbs into every activity pie. Again we presented a successful dramatic production, "Ladies of the Jury" at two performances. The accumulated treasury went towards buying the traditional senior gift to the school.

And although not yet history, the class of '52, like those before us, will graduate and leave behind five big years full of experiences that will soon be but a memory.

ACTIVITIES

Dear Al,

It's been a pleasure having class with you this past year. We've had fun in all our classes and I hope we will next year. Good luck Al.

Chintimini

Marilyn Bradshaw, Editor

I've only ten minutes to write this before it goes to the printers, and it is a little difficult to think when the Assistant Editor keeps pronouncing roster "rooster", and I'm trying to find out who the fella is in the back row of Sparskis, when the President, Dick Olson, doesn't even know. I wonder if the weather will be good for pictures next week? Probably will rain as it always does when we take pictures. More troubles—I put the carbon paper in backwards. It seems like Jane and I will always do that wrong.

Mr. Quale is growing short on patience I'm afraid. You can easily see why though. The staff would like to thank you Mr. Quale, for all the help and patience you have given us this year. It is no easy job we know and we appreciate all of your help.

We have tried our best to do a good job, although we know the book has its weaknesses. Thanks should be given to Mr. Viestenz and his department for their assistance with the art work.

If this book meets your expectations, as we of the staff hope it will, we will feel justified in thinking it was through the student's and faculty's co-operation.

On behalf of the '52 Chintimini Staff—

Sincerely yours,

Marilyn Bradshaw, Editor

National Honor Society

Numerous activities were carried on by the National Honor Society this year. Some of these included sponsoring a Time for Teens program, giving an assembly, selling Spartan stationery, and assisting the teachers in filling and mailing report cards.

To be eligible for membership in the Torch Chapter, students must have a grade point average of at least 3.25 and a minimum of twenty-two activity points for one semester. Candidates are then chosen on the basis of leadership, character, and service.

Officers for the year were: Clifford Kuhlman, president; Cathy Curtz, vice-president; Nan Gilfillan, secretary; and Joanne Wood, treasurer. The faculty adviser was Mrs. Ruth LeMaster.

Girls League

Peggy Gathercoal, President

This year Girls League tried something completely new with the purpose of giving new girls more responsibility. Five clubs were organized and officers elected from each club.

The main activities this year were: a rummage sale, a Thanksgiving basket for a needy family, and the "get acquainted potluck." The Valentine dedications were also sponsored this year.

Officers for the year were: Peggy Gathercoal, president; Nadine DuBois, vice-president; Roberta Humble, secretary; Janet Andrews, treasurer; and Marlene Hankins, personnel adviser. The adviser was Mrs. Mary State.

Boy's League

The Corvallis High School Boy's League was reactivated after an interval of seven years. The first objective of the new club was to re-write the outdated Constitution.

An intramural program was conducted for all boys that wanted to participate in the many sports offered at the high school. The teams were organized so that all boys of similar age, weight, and height would be competing together.

Assemblies were planned throughout the year and the students and faculty helped to put on these assemblies. An "all sport" night proved to be a great success.

This year was chiefly devoted to re-organizing the club. With the support of all boys it should be very active in the years to come.

The officers for the year were: Dow Poling, president; Dick Pollard, vice-president; John Seibert, secretary; and Frank Beer, sergeant-at-arms. The adviser was Mr. Badgley. Along with the officers a council of two representatives from each class served as a council.

Sparskis

Sparskis is an organization for all students interested in skiing. Sparskis has taken many one day trips to Hoodoo Ski Bowl along with a trip to Timberline Lodge on Mount Hood. They joined The Pacific National Skiing Association and the Cascade Recreational Council again this year.

The executive council for the club was made up of Dick Olson, president; Bob Jensen, vice-president; Jeri Keene, vice-president of girls; Virginia Ramsay, secretary; Betty Jo Maxson, treasurer; and Ted Davenport, representative. The adviser was Mr. Brenner.

Tri-Y

Tri-Y is a branch of the Y.W.C.A. Its purpose is to promote a higher standard of Christian ideals among girls.

The service project for the year was sending gifts to the Roseburg Veteran Hospital.

Other activities for the year included sending members to the mid-winter conference, selling mums for the Albany football game, and sponsoring the annual Christmas formal, "Peppermint Lane". This year a King and Queen were chosen to reign over the dance.

Officers for the year were: Virginia Ramsay, president; Sue Woods, vice-president; Marilyn Bradshaw, secretary; and Ann Hutchinson, treasurer. The faculty adviser was Mrs. Weichner; Round Table advisers were: Pat Clark and Sue Morgan.

Y-Teen

Y-Teen, the Y.W.C.A. organization for freshmen and sophomore girls, was organized to promote religious and social activities among its members.

This year has been a busy and profitable one for the Corvallis chapter. Some of the activities have been a Time for Teens program, a Girls League assembly, and a mid-year initiation and installation. Service projects for the year included sending chocolate bars to Austria, giving a Christmas basket to a needy family, donating clothes for Korea, entertaining at the Roseburg Veteran's Hospital, and stuffing T.B. envelopes. The girls also held monthly cake sales and attended church services.

Officers for the year were: Dorothy Gathercoal, president; Beverly Agnew, vice-president; Harriet Riley, secretary, and Doris Patton, treasurer; Mrs. Ruth Hess, faculty adviser; Flora Schuster and Nancy Halliday, representatives from O.S.C. Round Table.

Hi-Y

Hi-Y, a service club for high school boys, is affiliated with the national Y.M.C.A. The purpose of Hi-Y is to work together for a finer community and a better world, and to develop high standards of Christian character through action and leadership.

Some of the many services performed for the school this year were: taking tickets at the home football games and basketball games, maintaining order during the assemblies, printing the annual Spartan date book, shining shoes, presenting a Hi-Y assembly with a speaker from India, and financing a score board for baseball.

Other activities in which the club participated were: sponsoring a formal in April, attending a different church once every month, selling at the O.S.C. home football games, caroling during the Christmas season, and sending members to the "Youth in Government Conference".

The main project of the year was sending $150.00 to the World Service Fund. This money is used to sponsor missionaries in foreign lands and to help the needy in countries such as Japan.

The club was under the adviser-ship of Mr. Fred Quale.

Junior Hi-Y

Junior Hi-Y is a branch of the Y.M.C.A. for boys in the 8th and 9th grade. Various activities were carried on this year. Some of them were selling popcorn every Friday, checking shoes at rally dances, and attending church as a group once every two months. Early in the fall the club held an informal dance.

Officers for the year were: Fred Bennion, president; Bert Davenport, vice-president Jerry Kelley, secretary; Milton Decker, treasurer; and Paul Kelley, chaplain. The club adviser was Mr. Forrest.

Key Club

Key Club, which was organized two years ago in Corvallis High, is a junior Kiwanis service organization. Its chief purpose is to serve the school and community, and develop leadership and responsibility among high school boys.

Service projects to the school included ushering at home football games, recognition of the outstanding Spar-babe player on a plaque, and the painting of hurdles for the track squad. The principle community service projects were: setting up of the Red Cross blood mobile every month and the donation of $25.00 to the March of Dimes campaign.

To raise money, Key Club sold rally bells and popcorn. They also sold concessions at the O.S.C. football games.

Officers for the year were: John Seibert, president; Stan Irvin, vice-president; Bob Fudge, treasurer; Clayton Carlson, secretary; and Dick Pollard, sergeant-at-arms. Mr. Thaw has served as adviser to the group.

International Relations

Janet Alexander, President

International Relations is an organzation composed of Juniors and Seniors. The purpose of the club is to further the interests of the United Nations, to further our knowledge of international affairs, to create friendships among the high school students from different countries, and to develop in the student an active interest in international problems of the day.

During the past year we sent delegates to two conferences; the Far Eastern Conference at Oregon State College and the International Relations League Conference at Eugene. The program of the club included sponsoring a Time for Teens program, panel discussions, speaker, and foreign students from the college. Through this program the members were helped to gain a better understanding of world affairs.

The officers for the year were: Janet Alexander, president; Marjorie Wilbur, vice-president; Patty Austin, secretary; Darlene Christenson, treasurer; and advisers were: Miss Vera Horner and Mr. Fred Quale.

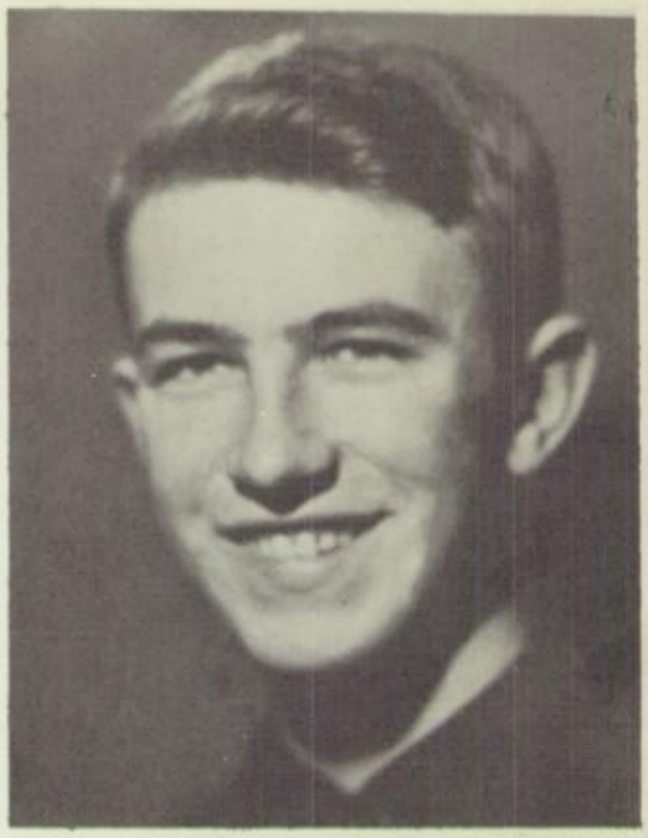
Fire Squad

The purpose of Fire Squad is to see that all students are safely evacuated from the school in case of a fire. There have been several successful fire drills during the year. The squad is divided into five batallions, each headed by a captain. Captains for the squads were: Tom Blackstone, Dow Poling, Dick Olson, Bob Ewalt, and Dwuane Speers.

Officers for the year were: Stanley Phelps, Fire Chief, and Dave McCracken, Assistant Chief. Mr. Olson acted as adviser.

Fire Squad would like to thank the students for their cooperation in the fire drills.



Stanley Phelps, Chief

Peter Meyer, President

Stagecraft

The plays and activities which took place on the stage during the year would not have been possible without the able assistance and service of Stagecraft members.

The main projects of the year were: the new canvas backdrop on which scenes may be painted, and the name board which was constructed and then installed in the gym.

Officers for the year were: Peter Meyer, president; Ramon Williams, vice-president; Freda Hanlon and Ruby Ott, treasurers; and Virginia Sutton, secretary. The adviser for the year was Mr. Bullard.

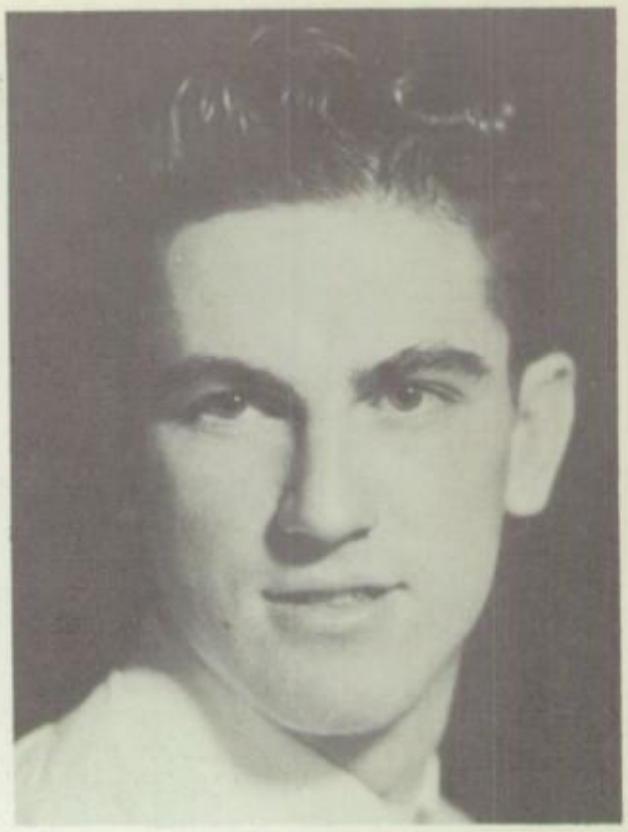
Row I: Hanlon, Brandt, Ott, Sutton, M. Bullard, adviser. Row II: Hanson, Meyer, Smith, Morgan, McCown, Brown.

Distributive Education

Distributive Education is composed of students taking the course of co-operative retail selling. These people work after school. Consequently they have little time to enjoy many of the social functions at school.

Some of the activities this year were: having parties at least once a month, going on field trips, and selling pastries once a week in the back hall.

Officers for the year were: Bill Bell, president; Dan Ordeman, vice-president; Geneva Barton, secretary; Ann Mae McGregor, treasurer; and Lorene McCormick, sergeant-at-ams. Richard Craig served as president the second semester. The club adviser was Mr. Brenner.



Bill Bell, President

Camera Club

Nancy Allworth, President

The primary purpose of Camera Club is to promote interest in photography in the school. It provides opportunities for its members to develop, print, and enlarge their own film in the club dark room.

Among the activities for the year was the annual snapshot contest which came in the spring. All year we urged members to take pictures for the annual and the school paper and got some very good results.

Officers for the year were: Nancy Allworth, president; Arivd Lonseth, vice-president; Jim O'Brien, treasurer; and Louise Rodgers, secretary. The adviser was Mr. Perry Spelbrink.

Christian Fellowship

The Christian Fellowship Club is sponsored by the Corvallis "Youth for Christ". It is an interdenominational club for the young people of Corvallis High.

This year marked the first complete year for the club. Meetings were held during activity period. They were opened with prayer, singing, and then a speaker. In February the club conducted an activity period assembly.

Officers for the year were: Stephen Beals, president; Jeanne Coates, vice-president; Barbara Wilbur, secretary-treasurer; and Mr. Climer, adviser.

Pep

The Pep Club is a service club whose purpose is to give assistance whenever it is needed, and to create enthusiasm and sportsmanship at all athletic events. Membership is based on character, loyalty, and interest in school activities. This year Pep has increased the membership to a total of fifty-six members.

Rally assemblies were given before home games and half time entertainment at football and basketball games. After most home games, cocoa and sandwiches were served to the two teams. Buses for out of town games were sponsored by the club, and also a Time for Teens radio program. Pep put up seats after all assemblies and ushered for the Christmas program and the Novelty Show.

F.F.A.

The Future Farmers of America had a very sucessful year. At the State Fair Corvallis won a total of sixty-seven ribbons and three grand champion banners. The chapter won the revolving Jenks-White Seed and Legume plaque for the fourth consecutive year. A third place rating was given to the chapter in the Farm Shop contest. Corvallis rated second in the state with seventy-six chapters competing.

Officers for the year were: Norman Coon, president; Jack Humphrey, vice-president; Bob Andrews, secretary; David Crawford, treasurer; Don Hiner, reporter; and Don Powell, sentinel. The club adviser was Mr. Kabler.

F.H.A.

The Future Homemakers of America is a national organization joining together all girls who are interested in better homemaking.

One of our main projects this year was the district meeting, held here in November, in which one hundred girls, representing sixteen, schools, participated. Delores Morrow acted as chairman of the meeting.

During the year we sent cookies to the Veteran's Hospital in Roseburg as our Red Cross project.

Cake, candy, and cookie sales were held at various times to supplement our treasury. In January we sponsored a sock dance in the gym.

Officers for the year were: Glenda Mann, president; Betty Hess, Vice-president; Marilyn Miller, secretary; LaVerna Riekenberg, treasurer; Shirley Jorgensen, parliamentarian; Gail Elliot, historian; and Delores Morrow, reporter. Our advisers were Mrs. Hunt and Miss Bigej. Mrs. R. C. Kamreth served as Chapter Mother.

Chandelle

Chandelle chapter of the National Junior Honor Society was the first honor society for underclassmen to be established in Corvallis High. Members are chosen from the 8th, 9th, and 10th grade classes.

Members are chosen on the basis of Character, Scholarship, Leadership, and Service. A grade point of 3.25 or better and activity points in three categories are also necessary to qualify for membership.

New members are taken in twice a year at formal initiations.

Some of the activities for the year were sponsoring an activity period assembly jointly with Torch, framing the society's constitution, and holding two potluck initiations.

Officers for the year were: Lloyd Anderson, president; Fred Bennion, vice-president; Janis Anderson, secretary; and Sue Henderson, treasurer. Mrs. LeMaster and Mr. Barkhurst were the faculty advisers. Cathy Curtz and Noel Ring acted as student advisers.

A Cappella Choir

Jack Young, president

This year was a busy one for the C.H.S. A Cappella Choir and its director, Opal Martin Johnson. The Christmas Program, the Novelties Show, and the Spring Concert were but a few of our many activities. We also sang for the Elks Memorial Service. The choir was honored along with the Band, the Exchange Assembly, and the Pep Club, with the 3rd annual Elks Party on March 14.

On April 1st the Choir went to Eugene to attend a conference of 9 choirs. A guest conductor, Jester Hairston, led all the choirs in an evening of Negro Spirituals. It was a rewarding experience for everyone.

Our officers for the year were; Jack Young, president; Sheila Gillen, manager; and Shirley McConnel, assistant-manager. They were instrumental in making this year such a successful one.

Grandioso

The main purpose of Grandioso is to promote appreciation for good music and further the interest in it.

Fall tryouts brought in fourteen new members to bring the membership up to forty. Another group was initiated in the spring.

Among the most successful ventures was the exchange assembly which put its program on for various neighboring schoools and to the Elks and other service clubs in town. The other music programs were also very successful.

The club was under the leadership of Jim O'Brien, president; Clayton Carlson, vice-president; Nancy Allworth, secretary; and Maureen Wegener, treasurer. The advisers were: Mrs. Opal Martin Johnson and Mr. Ray Hinkly.

Thespian

On January 9, 1952, Thalian officially became Troupe 1191 of the National Thespian Society. The charter members were: Marlene Hankins, Peggy Gathercoal, Betty Jane Logan, Bob Ewalt, Beverly Bell, Glenda Mann, Dick Olson, Jack Young, Heinz Brandt, Cliff Kuhlman, Barbara Johnson, Jim Lien, and Beverly Johnson.

This year's production for the annual All-School Play was "Green Valley", a comedy-fantasy by Frank Wattron.

Throughout the year members attended contests and conferences from which much was gained. We finished a successful year under the able leadership of the adviser, Mr. William Reedy, by taking our annual trip to Portland to see a professional production.

Officers for the year were: Beverly Johnson, president; Glenda Mann, vice-president; Beverly Bell, secretary; Jim Lien, treasurer; and Barbara Johnson, scribe.

With Dick Twenge, head Coach, and Arvid Niemi, line coach, heading a revamped coaching staff, the Corvallis High gridmen powered their way to a fairly successful season, winning 5 and losing 4. The Sparts were led this year by captain Tom Blackstone and halfback Dwuane Speers, who was voted the most valuable player award by his teammates.

Not much farther, pal!

Pete 'n Andy get the word

Big factors in the team's success were the strong throwing arm of quarterback Dow Poling, the excellent field-generalship of sophomore Frank Beer, who took over for the injured Poling late in the season, the hard-running of Speers and fullback Bill Thompson and the stalwart line play of such men as Blackstone, Young, Andrews, Lawrence, and McDougald. Larry Edwards, spirited sophomore halfback, received the annual most-inspirational player award.

Spart meets rough going

A clear-cut opening day victory over Newberg already behind them, a fired up band of Spartans faced the highly-rated Bend Lava Bears Sept. 21 on Spartan field. The Spartans proceeded to sweep the startled Bend team off the field in a game which set the Sparts up as one of the better teams in the state. This game was definitely the season's peak, but was followed by victories over Lebanon, 19-0, and Cottage Grove, 7-2. The Spartans, at a low ebb, ran into three tough customers in a row, Eugene, Springfield, and Salem. The Corvallis men put up a good fight but lost each of these by a three touch-down margin. The Sparts then snapped out of their lethargy to maul Sweethome 27-0, and in the big game of the year gave the experienced and highly favored Albany bulldogs a real scare before succumbing 18-12 on the swamp-like Albany field.

Challenging some of the toughest competition in the state, the 1951-52, senior-laden Corvallis Spartan basketball team compiled an average 10-won and 12-lost, regular season record. Although the Sparts didn't knock off many powerhouses, no team left the Corvallis floor without feeling that they had been in a battle. Probably the high-water mark of the season was the night of Jan. 4, when on the Corvallis court, the Sparts outfought and outscored the tough Albany Bulldogs, 54-44. The following night, they gave 7-footer Swede Halbrook and his Lincoln mates a real scare before succumbing 36-28 in the final quarter.

Two for Gil

Consistent starters for the Spartans were high-scoring captain Ralph Harding, playmaker Dow Poling, and Gil Lawrence and Tom Blackstone. Also seeing considerable starting action throughout the year were seniors Marv Brown and John Ellison and sophomores Ron Taylor, Dave Gambee, and Larry Edwards (moved up from the Jr. Varsity to replace Taylor. New head coach Tommy Holman did a good job of co-ordinating a group of boys, who for the most part, had played together very little.

The Sparts reached their peak at the right time -- in the District Tournament at spacious Gill Coliseum. We swamped Toledo 65-33, and then took the rubber game from Albany 63-51, to capture the District 7 championship.

At MacArthur Court in Eugene the Spartans ran into tougher competition and were eliminated from State Tourney play, losing close games to University High 41-35, and Milwaukie, 35-32.
